

Mrs. Mueller

December 16, 2022

What a joy to watch kindergarten sing and tell the story of Jesus's birth! I loved it! We are excited for our last two days before Christmas break!!

Homework

Please have your child complete the homework sheet and return to school on Monday. Please also place poems in the brads of the poetry folder and practice some of the poetry activities with your child.

Book Bags

Thank you for reading to your child each night and giving your child a chance to read to you as well. Please return the bag to school each day with the purple folder. Book bags will stay at school over the weekend. New books will be coming home in January

Christmas FOR St. Charles

You are invited! Reservations are open online.
Dec. 23rd 6:30pm
Dec. 24th 2:00pm, 3:30pm and 5:00pm

Dress-up Days

Two more! Leave your uniform at home and have fun dressing up with the following themes:

Monday Dec. 19: Jingle Jammies (Wear your Christmas pajamas)

Tuesday Dec. 20th: Ugly Christmas Sweater

Christian Friends of New Americans

Chapel offerings for December and January will go to CFNA who actively supports our immigrant and refugee neighbors by providing help with housing, employment, health services, English language classes, driving classes and blessing families with spiritual nurture. Thank you for continuing to inspire your children to be generous neighbors!

A Look Ahead

Jesus Time: Jesus is born!

Chapel Offering: Christian Friends of New Americans

Reading: CVC words, Christmas stories

Sight word: review

Writing: about the Grinch

Social Studies: holiday traditions

Science: seasons

Math: patterns

December 14th 6:30pm K-2 lead Advent service

December 20th: Kinder Christmas Party

Dec. 21st-Jan 3rd: Christmas break

January 4th: school resumes

No newsletter next week. I will send one in early January.