

Mrs. Bohn's Classroom

February 26, 2020

We were so happy that God blessed us with a beautiful week of weather! The preschoolers really enjoyed playing in the sunshine this week. Through sunny, rainy, or snowy weather we know that God is good! We had a great week in preschool and we are so proud of your children. Your child has grown so much this year and it is a joy to see all that they can do! We can now get winter gear on quickly to go outside (yay, zipper club!), help with the question of the day, do our big kid jobs, and are beginning to write our names, just to mention a few things. Thank you for all the hard work you put in at home with your child!

Jesus Time

This week we focused on Jesus calming the storm. We talked more about miracles and how only God is powerful enough to perform miracles. He is so powerful that even the winds and waves listen to him! The disciples were afraid during the storm, but they didn't have to be because Jesus was with them. Jesus is always with us, even if we cannot see Him! Jesus is with us at school AND with our family at work!

Next week, we will learn the story of Jesus feeding 5,000.

Project Theme

Fe-fi-fo-fum, we had a week of fairytale fun! Fairy Tales are a lot of fun, but through hearing and retelling Fairy Tales children practice problem solving, building vocabulary, and stretching their imaginations. Children love Fairy Tales and I tried to further spark that excitement by incorporating some Fairy Tale surprises in our classroom like a magic beanstalk, giant footprints, and some blocks that were huffed and puffed over. It was so fun to see how the children immediately began problem solving when they discovered a Fairy Tale surprise. The children also worked together to paint a larger than life beanstalk and I was so impressed! Not only did we make it through without paint spills, but the imaginations of the children during the process were amazing! Many of the children pretended to "walk" their paintbrushes up and down the beanstalk like Jack and the Giant. We also learned the story of The Three Little Pigs and had to decide which materials we would like to build our house with. It was so fun to watch the children make their own "pig house" and see if I could blow it over with my wolf (hair dryer).

Next, we will continue learning Fairy Tales and nursery rhymes. I am excited for another magical week in preschool!

Overheard in the Classroom

"I think there are fairies in here. They come and clean-up and change things around"

"Mrs. Bohn! Watch out! There is a GREAT WHITE SHARK right behind you!"

Student to another student, "Guys, she is talking nonsense." after I was playing a rhyming name game.

Me: "Can I go in your suitcase?"

Student: "No, you have to stay right here in this classroom!"

Me: "Please?"

Student: "No, there aren't snacks in the suitcase for you. You'll be hungry"

Thank you for entrusting your child to us. School is a partnership between parents and teachers so please contact me with any questions, concerns, or even a funny story! I love to hear from you!
